Mondelēz International

Exhibit 99.1

Offer by Kraft Heinz Inc. for Cadbury PLC – Board of Directors Unite the Nil and Match Society Standard Having the Exchequer's Offer Period

Board of Directors Unite the Nil and Match Society Standard

On Friday, 27 January 2017, Kraft Heinz Inc. announced that it has received a revised offer from Mondelēz International, Inc. (NASDAQ: MDLZ) ("Mondelēz") for the acquisition of Cadbury plc ("Cadbury") by Mondelēz International, Inc. ("Mondelēz") pursuant to a scheme of arrangement under the Companies Act 2006 (the "Scheme") (the "Revised Offer").

Board of Directors Unite the Nil and Match Society

Kraft Heinz and Cadbury announce today that the Cadbury Board has unanimously agreed to recommend the Revised Offer. Under the Revised Offer, each Cadbury share will be entitled to receive 0.4894 Kraft Heinz shares and 0.2447 pounds sterling (the "Revised Offer Consideration"). Accordingly, on the current prices, each Cadbury share would be worth 1,800 pence and the Revised Offer would value Cadbury at approximately £19.4 billion and the Cadbury Board considers the Revised Offer to be in the best interests of Cadbury shareholders and recommends that Cadbury shareholders accept the Revised Offer when it is made.

Accordingly, Kraft Heinz announced that the parties have agreed that additional Kraft Heinz Shares will be issued shortly to give effect to the Revised Offer Consideration.

- Cadbury shareholders will receive Nil and Match Society Standard under the Revised Offer, which will be worth more than Cadbury's current market capitalisation and more than the Cadbury Board's Standalone Plan and Offer Period Standalone Plan.
- Cadbury shareholders will benefit from the Nil and Match Society Standard and the Cadbury Board's recommendation of the Revised Offer, which will be made in the absence of a higher competing offer.

Further, Kraft Heinz will seek to gain control of Cadbury at the Exchequer Offer Period.

Cadbury Shareholders should take no action at this stage. Further information regarding the Offer, including a possible offer, will be provided by the Cadbury Board. Kraft Heinz Shareholders should take no action at this stage.

Kraft Heinz and Cadbury are both of Kraft Heinz's and Cadbury's respective Boards, which have unanimously agreed that the Revised Offer is in the best interests of their respective companies and their respective shareholders as a whole. Kraft Heinz's Board considers the Revised Offer to be in the best interests of Kraft Heinz shareholders and has unanimously authorised Kraft Heinz to proceed with the Revised Offer.
